2019 Physician Collegiality Dinners

Everyday, physicians give the gift of healing and support to patients throughout Montgomery County. MCMS's Physician Collegiality Dinners are an opportunity for members to connect and celebrate the art and practice of medicine among the only people who can truly relate to their daily experience--fellow physicians.

There will be six physician collegiality dinners throughout 2019. Physician members are invited to attend one as a part of your membership. If you'd like to attend additional dinners, the cost is $85 each.

Past dinners were held at Stanford Grill, Pinstripes, Cesco Osteria and Copper Canyon Grill earlier this year. One more dinner will be announced in the autumn.

Physician Collegiality Dinner & Discussion

Wednesday, October 23

5:30-6:30 PM Wine & Hors d'Oeuvres
6:30-8:30 PM Dinner

Cooper's Hawk Winery & Restaurant

1403 Research Blvd, Rockville, MD 20850

All physician members of MCMS are cordially invited for an evening of collegiality and conversation, as we ponder the triumphs (and travails) of the art and practice of medicine in 2019.

This event is held in remembrance of Henry P. Laughlin, M.D. (pictured above), who was a long time member of MCMS before his passing. His steadfast dedication to public health and generosity to local charitable organizations lives on today, through his memorial fund at the National Capital Physicians Foundation.

Join us as we celebrate his august legacy and ponder what he would have thought of medicine in the 21st century.

RSVP

Active physician members may select ONE of the six collegiality dinners to attend at no cost. Emeritus members and members who would like to attend a second dinner, $85 each.
